How to respond

- Read each statement as a general rule. If an exception comes to mind, answer for the typical case.
- Use Neutral when your view is genuinely mixed, balanced, or undecided. Neutral contributes zero.
- Do not try to guess what an ideology, party, or test designer would prefer.
- Mark exactly one option for every statement before using the scoring rubric.

Response	Scoring value
Strongly disagree	-2
Disagree	-1
Neutral	0
Agree	1
Strongly agree	2

Important: This is an unnormed descriptive instrument, not a psychological diagnosis or a validated predictor of party identity or voting behavior. The separate rubric explains the model, coefficients, limitations, and suggested validation work.
